The purpose of the Rose Hill Presbyterian Church Scholarship is to spread the Gospel of Jesus Christ through the promotion of higher learning in students who will take the Gospel into the world through ministry, mission, and industry. The scholarship is available to members of Rose Hill Presbyterian Church who are pursuing undergraduate or graduate studies at accredited institutions of higher learning. Applicants will demonstrate:

A desire to spread the Gospel through their participation and leadership in church ministries and missions
The capacity to succeed in their further education
A well-rounded life

Additional consideration will be given to applicants with greater need for financial assistance.

INSTRUCTIONS

1. Application must be completed and returned before March 31st.
2. Please complete the application electronically and provide a hard copy with signatures. E-mail the electronic copy to office@rosehillpc.org, and mail or bring the hard copy to the church office.
3. Include zip codes with all addresses.
4. Please include a copy of your most recent transcript and any relevant test scores (e.g. ACT, SAT) with the hard copy.
5. Request three references to fill out the attached form, to be returned to Rose Hill Presbyterian Church by March 31st. The form is also available at rosehillpc.org.
